MOROCCAN MOSAIC

Discover the many facets of this exotic and alluring destination

17 DAYS - STARTING CASABLANCA 24 APRIL 2019

MOROCCAN MOSAIC

Trip Outline

Morocco has experienced many waves of conquerors including Phoenicians, Carthaginians, Romans and Arabs, but it is the last of this group that has left the most enduring impression. Morocco is the oldest kingdom in the Muslim world and successive dynasties have left behind a rich culture and a wonderful heritage, including historic towns, ancient cities and spectacular monuments.

This exciting and comprehensive journey showcases the best of Morocco. We not only visit the celebrated cities of Tangiers, Rabat, Meknes, Fes and Marrakech but our tour encompasses lesser-known places we have discovered over the years including Sale, Chefchaouen, Tetouan and N’Kob, Merzouga and Ait Benhaddou in the south.

From Casablanca we travel to the capital Rabat and to the former pirate haven of Sale before following the coast to lovely Tangiers on the Strait of Gibraltar. Tangier has for centuries been Europe's gateway to Africa. Turning south we visit Tetouan, nestled between the Rif Mountains and the Mediterranean, and then the blue washed mountain village of Chefchaouen with its stunning Kasbah. Next is the imperial city of Meknes and the stunning Roman ruins of Volubilis and in due course we reach the amazing city of Fes, with its maze of medieval souks and there’s time for a side-trip to the historical town of Sefrou.

Driving across the dramatic Middle Atlas, we arrive at Merzouga, where we ride camels into the golden sands of the Sahara. We now deviate from the traditional tourist route, travelling first alongside the Jebel Saghro and then into the lovely Draa Valley. We experience stunning landscapes, explore atmospheric towns and villages and enjoy lunch in a historic kasbah at Tamnougalt. This region of Morocco is a particular ‘Byroads’ specialty, and a major highlight of the trip. Four days allows ample time to experience this incredibly scenic region without hurrying through. Heading to the Atlantic coast, we then spend two nights in the delightful walled medina of Essaouira before driving to Marrakech where we visit all the major sights.

Throughout this tour you will experience some charming and atmospheric accommodation, including historic riads and authentic kasbahs.

Tour Host – Steve Mortimer

Steve Mortimer heads up Byroads Travel and will be your host on this tour. Steve has nearly 30 years in the travel industry and has travelled to well over 100 countries. He has worked with a number of well-known Australian adventure travel companies. Most recently he has been involved in researching and developing holidays in several different regions of the world including Latin America and the Middle East where he lived for two years in Egypt.

Steve likes nothing better than getting out and about with like-minded travellers, sharing his knowledge and introducing participants to some of the world’s most interesting places. On this trip, there is a focus on the kasbah-studded valleys of Morocco’s deep south – a particular Byroads speciality.

With our itinerary you can be confident you’ll visit all the ‘must see’ attractions – and much more, however there are some days when you’ll have time to wander and make some of your own discoveries. Throughout the tour local guides are employed to provide a wealth of background information and share their extensive local knowledge.

ITINERARY STARTS IN CASABLANCA

WED 24 APR: CASABLANCA – Upon arrival at Casablanca Airport you are met and transferred to your hotel. Today is simply an arrival day and we will plan to meet up in the evening.

THU 25 APR: RABAT-SALE-TANGIERS – Having visited Casablanca's giant Hassan II mosque we head to nearby Rabat to view the Hassan Tower and the royal mausoleum. We explore Sale's old medina and slave market and then drive north to Tangiers on the Strait of Gibraltar. (B)

FRI 26 APR: TANGIERS – Rooted in an enduring eccentricity, Tangier's charm is undeniable. We'll visit the beautiful Kasbah museum with its collection of artefacts dating from Phoenician times and enjoy the great views of the harbour. Later we travel out to visit the Caves of Hercules before enjoying a free afternoon to explore the medina and fantastic cafes of the city. (B)

SAT 27 APR: TETOUAN-CHEFCHAOUEN – Today we head to the the old town of Tetouan, nestled between the Rif Mountains and the Mediterranean. Once the capital of the Spanish Protectorate the markets of this town are particularly interesting. Turning south we arrive at the charming 'blue' mountain village of Chefchaouen, where the balance of the day is free to explore. (B)

SUN 28 APR: VOLUBILIS, MOULAY IDRIS, MEKNES – Continuing South we explore the Roman city of Volubilis and stop for coffee in the holy city of Moulay Idriss before arriving in Imperial Meknes. Here we visit the great storerooms of Moulay Ismail, Dar Jamai, Bou Inania Madrasa – and take a walk through the atmospheric medina.

MON 29 APR: MEKNES-SEFROU-FES – Having finished our discoveries of Meknes we visit the picturesque little town of Sefrou where we have the opportunity to enjoy a traditional couscous meal with a local family before exploring the town's wonderful traditional medina. Later we travel to Fes where we settle into our traditional Riad where the remainder of the afternoon is free. (B)

TUE 30 APR: FES – Today we explore wonderful Fes visiting new Fes by bus and then on foot in the ancient city. We discover beautiful Bou Inania Madrasa, and the Funduk Neijarine and watch local artisans creating intricate Zellij tile mosaics. Later we explore the eastern end of the old city, including the coppersmiths' souk and the celebrated Tanneries. (B)

WED 1 MAY: FES-ER RACHIDIA – We drive south to the small town of Er Rachidia, passing through a variety of scenery between the Atlas and Anti-Atlas Mountains. We stop at Ifrane, a winter ski resort with quaint, 'alpine' houses, and visit Azrou with its small medina. We spend the night at a charming, family-run auberge in Er Rachidia. (BD)

THU 2 MAY: MERZOUGA & THE SAHARA – Near Erfoud we explore the ruined Ksar Maadid, and at Rissani we visit the busy Thursday souk. Reaching Merzouga we have time to relax and swim before a fun sunset camel ride into the dunes. (BD)

FRI 3 MAY: JEBEL SAGHRO/N'KOB – We now take a rarely travelled route towards the Jebel Saghro to the gorgeous Kasbah-studded town of N'Kob. In the afternoon we walk through the lush palmery with Ibrahim, a local character, and explore the village further. (BD)

SAT 4 MAY: N'KOB-AIT BENHADDOU – We drive through the stunning Draa Valley and visit the old ksar at Tamnougalt and nearby Kasbah of Caid Ali. We then continue via Ouarzazate and arrive at our fabulous kasbah-style hotel located in Tachdirt on the outskirts of Ait Benhaddou. (BD)

SUN 5 MAY: AIT BENHADDOU, TELOUET – After breakfast we travel through one of Morocco's most stunning valleys to visit the celebrated Glaoua family kasbah at Telouet. The afternoon is free to relax. In the late afternoon we visit the World Heritage-listed ksar at Ait Benhaddou. (BD)

MON 6 MAY: AIT BENHADDOU-ESSAOUIRA – We drive over the High Atlas and down across the hot plains to the lovely coastal town of Essaouira. It's a long day (9 hours) but we can look forward to a delicious dinner in one of the many seafood restaurants! (B)

TUE 7 MAY: ESSAOUIRA – Today is completely free to relax and explore this lovely old town. With its many quaint houses and covered alleyways, it reminds us a bit of Chefchaouen. (B)

WED 8 MAY: MARRAKECH – We drive to Marrakech. In the afternoon there's an optional cooking class or we can explore the amazing Jemaa el Fna and adjacent souks. (B)

THU 9 MAY: MARRAKECH – We enjoy a half day walking tour of Marrakech, including the Saadian Tombs and the Bahia Palace before we stroll through the souks to the superb Photographic Museum. The afternoon is free for a final burst of shopping! (B)

FRI 10 MAY: DEPARTURE – Our journey ends today, after breakfast. Airport transfers can be easily arranged from our Riad. (B)
