SOUTH CAUCASUS

Discover the highlights of Azerbaijan, Georgia & Armenia

16 DAYS - STARTING BAKU 15th MAY 2020

SOUTH CAUCASUS

Trip Outline

The Caucasus Mountains form the physical divide between Europe and Asia and the region of the South Caucasus, nestled between rugged mountains and the Black and Caspian Seas are home to the compact countries of Azerbaijan, Georgia and Armenia. In true Byroads style, we take the time to explore these lesser known countries, experiencing and contrasting the local religions, cultures, peoples and cuisines while discovering the wonderful historical and natural sights that abound.

Our trip starts in Azerbaijan - the 'land of fire'. In the capital of Baku, once an important trading post on the Silk Road, we explore the ancient citadel containing the Maidens Tower, historic mosques and caravanserais and the Shirvan Shah's palace. We then discover 'New' Baku with its impressive modern towers and the stunning architecture of the Heydar Aliyev Centre. At the Gobustan N.P. we view Stone Age petroglyphs and walk amongst bubbling mud volcanoes, whilst in Ateshgah we admire the ancient Zoroastrian flame temple. In the old capital of Sheki we stay in a restored caravanserai and visit the colourful palace of the Sheki Khans.

Christian Georgia is home to soaring alpine mountains and lush green valleys dotted with historic churches, fortresses and wineries. We explore historic homes of ancient Georgian royalty in Tsinandali and walk atop ancient walls at Signagh town. In Tbilisi we wander through the historic centre visiting the soaring Holy Trinity cathedral and enjoy great views from the Narikala Fortress. North of Tbilisi we journey into the Caucasus by 4WD for stunning alpine views across to the Russian border. At Gori we contemplate a more recent history at the Joseph Stalin museum and visit the ancient capital at Mtskheta where Kings were crowned and buried.

Armenia is an ancient country whose more recent tragic history has demonstrated the resilience of its people. It is a region of old legends, Biblical stories, centuries old monasteries and cathedrals set in a stark landscape. Historic Yerevan dates from the 8th Century BC and is watched over by imposing Mount Ararat. We explore the city, learn of the Armenian Genocide and visit stunning monasteries and forts at nearby Garni, Geghard and Noravank. We also take the time to join a cooking class and have hands on experience at the pottery wheel.

Tour Host – Steve Mortimer

Steve Mortimer heads up Byroads and will be your host on this tour. Steve has more than 30 years in the travel industry and has travelled to well over 100 countries. He started work in travel as an expedition leader, taking travellers overland across Africa, Asia and South America. He has also worked with a number of well-known Australian travel companies designing and operating holidays to some of the world's most fascinating destinations.

With Byroads you can be confident you'll visit all the 'must see' attractions, however there is still time to wander and make your own discoveries. Throughout the tour a local guide provides a wealth of information and shares their extensive local knowledge.

2020 ITINERARY - STARTS IN BAKU

FRI 15 MAY: BAKU – Upon arrival at Baku airport in Azerbaijan you will be met and transferred to your hotel. Today is simply an arrival day and we will plan to meet up in the evening.

SAT 16 MAY: BAKU – Today we explore the narrow streets of the walled historical centre of the capital. Built on a site inhabited since the Palaeolithic period we will stop at the 12th Century Maiden Tower, ancient caravansaries and the beautiful Palace of Shirvan Shah. In the afternoon we visit the National History Museum, located in the mansion of a former Azerbaijani oil magnate. (B)

SUN 17 MAY: BAKU-GOBUSTAN-BAKU – The remarkable Heydar Aliev Centre is our first stop. Designed by Iraqi-British architect Zaha Hadid it is noted for its distinctive architecture and flowing, curved style. It houses a gallery, a museum and hosts numerous exhibitions. Next is the Gobustan National Park famous for its ancient petroglyphs, excellent museum and its mud volcanoes. (B)

MON 18 MAY: BAKU-ATESHGHAH-BAKU – This morning we travel to Ateshgah to the 'Fire Temple', an ancient site used by Hindu, Sikh and Zoroastrians in their worship of fire. Our next stop is at the flaming mountain before returning to the city where we have free time until late afternoon when we drive to Highland Park for panoramic views over the city and to visit the memorial flame and the unique 'Flame Towers'. (B)

TUE 19 MAY: BAKU-SHAMAKHA-LAHICH-SHEKI – Heading west we stop at Shamakha to visit the Juma Mosque and to see the ancient family graveyard of the Shirvan Shahs. We then drive through stunning mountain scenery to the ancient village of Lahich where we have time to wander its narrow streets before continuing to Sheki to be guided through the palace of the Sheki Khans. (B)

WED 20 MAY: SHEKI-GEORGIAN BORDER-TELAVI – This morning we cross into Georgia where we enjoy lunch in a local Georgian family home. Next stop is the Khareba Winery where we sample fine Georgian wines before continuing to the Gremi architectural complex, the 16th century royal residence and capital of the Kakheti Kingdom. We overnight nearby. (BL)

THU 21 MAY: TELAVI-SIGNAGHI-TBILISI – We continue exploring the Kakheti region visiting beautiful Tsinandali – an historical family home, the Bodbe Monastery and the Royal Town of Signaghi before arriving in Tbilisi. (B)

FRI 22 MAY & SAT 23 MAY: TBILISI – Our walking tour of Tbilisi includes the Holy Trinity Cathedral, the Metekhi Church and Narikala Fortress. We visit the sulphur bath houses, the Sioni Cathedral, the Rezo Gabriadze theatre and there's time to enjoy the lovely coffee houses. The following morning we tour the wonderful ethnography open air museum displaying the examples of folk architecture, houses and craftwork from various regions of Georgia. Our afternoon is then free to make our own discoveries and a dinner and show will be included tonight. (BD)

SUN 24 MAY: TBILISI-JVARI-MTSKHETA-KAZBEGI-GUDAURI – We drive north through stunning mountain scenery. First stop is the 6th century Jvari Church before visiting Mtskheta, one of the country's oldest villages. At Kazbegi we change to 4WD and arrive at Gergeti with breath taking views of Mt Kazbegi on the Russian border. We overnight in a chalet in the town of Gudauri. (BD)

MON 25 MAY: GUDAURI-ANANURI-GORI-UPLISTSIKHE-MTSKHETA – We stop at the Ananuri Castle before visiting the Stalin Museum in Gori, a stark reminder of a bygone era. The ancient rock-hewn town of Uplistsikhe is next. This cave town has been a centre for pagans, Arabs and Christian kings as well as an important trade centre. Our final stop before reaching Mtskheta is at Tserovania Village where we join a local exiled South Osetian family for an early dinner. (BD)

TUE 26 MAY: MTSKHETA-ARMENIAN BORDER-VANADZOR-DILIJAN – Heading south we cross the Armenian border, visiting the Haghpat monastery and Stepanavan to Vanadzor. Here we enjoy a wonderful, entertaining and insightful time with a local artist. We will learn about the stone 'Khachkar' and gain a great insight into Armenian arts and culture. We then drive on to Dilijan. (B)

WED 27 MAY: DILIJAN-LAKE SEVAN-YEREVAN

We visit the ruins of Sevanavank Monastery on the edge of Lake Sevan before continuing to Yerevan. Later we enjoy a tour of the Megeryan carpet factory and join a cooking workshop with a top Armenian chef and then visit the Armenian Genocide Memorial. (B)

TOUR PRICES

Byroads tour prices and provisional tour prices are based on tariffs and prevailing rates of exchange when tours were costed. Prices are subject to change without prior notice. In the event of fluctuations in currency exchange rates, service providers' tariffs, fuel prices or any other cost that affects the price of your tour, Byroads reserves the right to adjust tour prices at any time up to the day of departure.

TOUR OPERATION

Although Byroads will endeavour to ensure that tours are operated as advertised, an express condition of making a reservation is the acceptance by you that the tour itineraries, schedules, advertised accommodation, sightseeing and mode of transportation as outlined in the Byroads brochure and/or supplied in the pre-departure information are subject to change without prior notice. If for any reason Byroads is forced to cancel a tour before it commences, all monies paid in respect of the tour will be refunded in full less any credit card fees collected.

Unforeseeable circumstances such as force majeure, adverse weather conditions such as floods or earthquakes, airline flight rescheduling, technical faults with transportation and road conditions may also have a consequential effect on the content of your tour after it has commenced. Any decision made in respect of tour services provided by Byroads to reroute or amend the itinerary due to the above or similar circumstances shall be at the sole discretion of Byroads. Byroads and Travel on Q shall not be liable for any claim whatsoever arising from such events that affect the schedule and content of your tour

HEALTH AND FITNESS

Byroads operates soft adventure tours. All participants are required to be fit and healthy. Some of the hotels used by Byroads may not have lifts or porters so you must be prepared at times to carry your own suitcase. Before travelling with Byroads, it is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with any health requirements applicable to areas through which you will be travelling.

ACCEPTANCE OF RISK

You acknowledge that the nature of the trip is adventurous and participation involves a degree of personal risk. You will be visiting places where the political, cultural and geographical attributes present dangers and physical challenges greater than those present in our daily lives. We use information from government foreign departments and reports from our own contacts in assessing whether the itinerary should operate. However it is also your own responsibility to acquaint yourself with all relevant travel information and the nature of your itinerary. You acknowledge that your decision to travel is made in light of consideration of this information and you accept that you are aware of the personal risks attendant upon such travel.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

Australian passport holders must have at least 6 months validity on their passport after the date of return to Australia. Visas are required for a number of our tours and it is your responsibility to obtain them. Travel on Q can assist with this process. Non Australian passport holders are asked to check passport and visa requirements at the time of booking.

ITEMS NOT INCLUDED IN TOUR COST

The cost of your Byroads tour includes hotel accommodation, transportation, transfers as specified, sightseeing and meals as indicated in the tour brochure. It does not include international airfares, airport departure taxes, unspecified meals, optional sightseeing, additional transfers, gratuities for hotel staff, guides and tour leaders, items of a personal nature such as laundry, phone calls etc. or any other incidental expenses.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

It is an express condition of travelling with Byroads that you have comprehensive travel insurance including full cover for repatriation. It is highly recommended that you take out travel insurance at the time you pay the deposit to guard against any unforeseen circumstances. If on the first day of your tour you cannot provide evidence that you have purchased comprehensive travel insurance you will be required to purchase a policy before proceeding with your tour.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

We contract with a network of companies, government agencies and individuals to assist in the running of our trips as agent for these third parties. We are not responsible for the acts and omissions of these third parties. To the fullest extent permitted by law:

- (i) any liability for any loss, death, injury or damage which you may suffer (directly or indirectly) in connection with or arising out of your participation in a trip, or any breach of the Booking Conditions, is excluded;
- (ii) Travel on Q acts only as agent for Byroads and accepts no responsibility for the acts and omissions of Byroads or any of its associated service providers for any inaccuracies in information provided, negligence, loss, damage, omission, accident, detention, diversion or theft in regard to luggage or any personal belongings whatsoever.
- (iii) you release Byroads and its officers, employees, agents and representatives from any liability and expressly waive any claims you may have against us arising out of or in connection with your participation in a trip; and
